KOA Flood Relief Effort – Final Report

December 23, 2016

Dear Members,

Namaskaar!

In September 2014, as you know, our homeland Kashmir witnessed unprecedented floods. Like so many around the world, KOA also initiated a funds drive to help out our unfortunate brethren that were directly affected by these floods. KOA is indebted to the following organizations and members who came forward to contribute a total of $54225.80 towards the KOA's initiative towards Flood relief efforts and some for India-outreach program (see Table 1):

TABLE 1: Total Donations Collected

Donors	Amount	Comment
S V B FOUNDATION INC USA	$ 2,835.00	Fund A
S V B FOUNDATION INC USA	$ 25,000.00	Fund A
CHILDREN'S HOPE INDIA INC	$ 10,000.00	Fund A
KOA Members (India-outreach)	$ 851.00	Fund A
Sh. Ravi Mattu	$ 5,000.00	Fund A
KOA Members (Flood relief)	$ 6,339.80	Fund B
Shirdi Sai Parivaar	$ 4,200.00	Fund B
Total	$ 54,225.80

With GoI being best equipped to respond to the acute needs post flood we were advised to focus on the long term chronic needs of the community which would not make headline news and would therefore suffer from neglect. We divided the moneys into Fund A and Fund B (as shown in Table 1 above), the latter being focused on deserving individual beneficiaries facing critical humanitarian needs. As far as the chronic needs are concerned, we had Sh. Rakesh Kaul Sr, KOA Program Director for India Outreach program, consult with the donors and we obtained their concurrence to fund the programs such as Jagati Middle School and heritage center platform programs.

To get started with the aid distribution, such items as gas stoves, solar lamps and warm clothes (sweater, blankets, etc. were distributed in three separate installments among the flood-affected victims in village, Saddal, at Panjar in district Udhampur through the efforts of AIKS volunteers (see Table 2).

Total donation was worth $7670, out of which $1480.79 is proportional to the flood relief fund collected from Shirdi Sai Parivaar and US-based KOA members combined (Fund B) and $6,189.21 from Fund A (see Table 3).

Table 3: Balance in each Fund after disbursement to AIKS

Fund	Amount Raised	Portion paid to AIKS for Flood Relief	Balance
Fund A	$ 43,686.00	$ 6,189.21	$ 37,496.79
Fund B	$ 10,539.80	$ 1,480.79	$ 9,059.01
Total	$ 54,225.80	$ 7,670.00	$ 46,555.80

Though we sent some relief initially through AIKS, but we needed some help from an organization that actually worked in Kashmir valley and could distribute relief to KPs in the valley. This is where we used services of Yakjah - an organization run by Ashima ji Kaul - to distribute flood relief funds to some deserving cases in Kashmir. Ashima ji is an independent journalist and peace practitioner and managing director of Yakjah, with volunteers from the regions of Delhi, Jammu and Valley mobilizing friends, relatives, neighbors, colleagues and strangers through Twitter, Facebook, Whatsapp, word of mouth to donate for flood relief. Yakjah identified the following KP beneficiaries still living in Kashmir that were in dire need of financial need (Table 4).

Ashima ji's reporting and status of the cases have been exemplary to say the least - she sent us complete details, pictures, audio as well as video clips. I have zipped everything together and uploaded to the following link for you to download from (162MB in size total):

In addition, please download the attached PDF presentation on the distribution of flood relief funds to victims in Kashmir identified by Yakjah. I shared this presentation with Shirdi Sai Parivaar representative Sh. Anand Iyer, and this is what he has to say about our efforts and reporting:

"...I reviewed the email and also the powerpoint presentation. Both look great. Thanks for providing such detailed information regarding SSP fund disbursement. This is the first that an organization has provided such detailed information. We really appreciate your efforts and following up on the funds that was provided to KOA...."

After seeking Donors' permission, the remaining balance of $37496.79 (Table 5 below) was transferred to Sharika Trust in Jammu in 2 separate instalments of $20000 and $17496.79 for Jagti Project (click on link below for a presentation):

AIKS started the relief measures soon after the flood fury hit the Valley as well as Jammu province. Earlier in the first phase the Samaj provided the help to the community members living in the Valley followed by the second phase. In Jammu AIKS distributed relief to the flood affected victims of Phalain Mandal. The families who have shifted to Panjar in camps were also been given a help from AIKS.

Beneficiary # 2 Shanti Dhar

- Shanti Dhar had lost everything. Her home in Jawahar Nagar was completely flattened. When Ashima Kaul, Managing Director of Yakjah, had last visited her she had begun to build the house as she was living in a shed. As a single parent and two liabilities (her paraplegic brother-in-law and teenager son) she had used all her pension savings and taken loan from neighbors.
- It will be nice if in the long run we are able to address the issue of livelihood for her son. Perhaps think of an entrepreneurial venture for him as employment in Kashmir, that too for minority boys is quite challenging. They unfortunately do not fall under the migrant PM package.

They live in Indira Nagar and took the flood onslaught as their house is located in the front and when the waters came took their belongings as well. They claim even the gold they had saved for daughter wedding was also swept. However ,they live in the house, though their families had moved to Jammu temporarily.
